

WORLD CONGRESS ON OILS & FATS AND ISF LECTURESHIP SERIES

Rosario, Argentina · September 2025

Organized by: ASAGA

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS: ISF AWARD - Honoring Excellence in Fats and Oils Research

The International Society for Fat Research is thrilled to announce the ISF Lectureship Series, Taking Place Within The World Congress on Oils & Fats, hosted by ASAGA (Argentine Society of Fats and Oils) in Rosario, Argentina, from September 15 to 19, 2025. As part of this prestigious event, the ISF Award will be presented to recognize the most outstanding international contribution to the field of fats and oils.

Selection Process:

Applicants for the ISF Award will be assessed by the Scientific Committee of the World Congress. This committee will propose the top three applications, and the final selection will be made by the Executive Board of ISF. The selected awardee will have the honor of presenting their lecture during a special plenary session at the World Congress.

Nomination Guidelines:

We invite you to submit your nominations for this distinguished award. Please include the applicant's short curriculum vitae and a brief statement detailing their exceptional contributions. These materials combined should not exceed two pages in length. Kindly note that nominations from the host country and the previous awardee's country will not be accepted.

The chosen awardee must be available to deliver the lecture at the next ISF Lectureship Series. The recipient will be recognized with a medal, certificate, travel and expense allowance, as well as complimentary registration for the congress.

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS: JULY 2024

Stay tuned for more updates, and we will inform you of the official nomination process opening.
